

2026 Indigenous Talent for International Affairs Program — Facilitator Recruitment

- I. Purpose and Goals: This program strengthens young people's capacity to engage in global and regional Indigenous issues, promotes cross-cultural communication and international cooperation, and connects learning with action through exchanges, site visits, and service in Indigenous communities.
- II. Venue: National Dong Hwa University and selected locations and Indigenous communities in Hualien.
- III. Dates and Duration: Facilitator orientation will be announced separately. The formal program will be held from September 19 (Saturday) to September 24 (Thursday), 2026, for a total of six days and five nights. September 19 is the travel and registration day, followed by a welcome exchange dinner.
- IV. Program Support and Facilitator Fee: The Council of Indigenous Peoples will cover eligible domestic transportation, meals, and designated accommodation. Facilitators will receive a service fee of NT$2,500 per day for the six-day formal program, subject to applicable payment procedures.
- V. Facilitator Responsibilities: Facilitators must attend the orientation and the full formal program, support group discussions and activities, assist with participant coordination and cross-cultural communication, and complete other program-related tasks assigned by the organizer.
- VI. Application Deadline: 5:00 p.m., Thursday, August 27, 2026.
